The Compliment Noticed.

I noticed in last week's issue of the News, where Circuit Judge Carter had said, that judging from the small amount of business transacted at the January term of the Adair Circuit Court, that one court a year would be sufficient for Adair county. Every good citizen should appreciate such a compliment as this, from our Circuit Judge, it being good evidence that the morals of our county, are growing better to a marked extent as the years go by, and that evil doers in the past are becoming conscious of the error of their way, and most of them have resolved to be law abiding citizens in the future.

Up in Casey county, where I have been assisting the new Circuit Clerk during the terms of court, since his induction into office, conditions are not so good, as we have 87 appearance commonwealth causes and possibly 200 old ones on the docket for the March term. Although civil litigation is not so extensive in Casey county, as it is in Adair, but Judge Carter is no respecter of persons when it comes to violators of the law, and those people up there are beginning to realize, that when he speaks he means business, and the business like methods in which he conducts his courts, is commended by all the good people in that section of country.

Fred McLean.

Death of a Prominent Lady.

Much sorrow was expressed in this community early Monday morning when the death of Mrs. Amerta Hindman, the beloved wife of Mr. W. A. Hindman, was announced. She was born and reared in the Portland section of Adair county, her maiden name being Caldwell. Last year she became a resident of Columbia, her daughter, Miss Pearl, being County School Superintendent, and the removal to this place was for her convenience. Mrs. Hindman was a highly respected Christian lady and her death is a serious blow to her aged husband and children. She was sixty-five years old, the mother of H. C. Hindman, who is Stamp Deputy for the Fifth Kentucky district, his office being at Lebanon, and a sister-in-law of Lieutenant Governor J. R. Hindman. Besides the children mentioned she leaves three other sons, Will, Curt and Clarence Hindman, all industrious farmers, and many other relatives, all of whom have the profoundest sympathy of everybody in this town. The funeral services will be conducted at the Methodist Church this (Tuesday) afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, and Revs. B. M. Currie and L. T. Hulise will officiate. The interment in the city cemetery. There were many floral offerings.

Quite a Compliment.

The Courier-Journal of last Friday republished a large part of Dr. U. L. Taylor's report to the Fiscal Court of Adair county, paying the local health officer a very deserving compliment for his complete work. In closing its editorial on Dr. Taylor's published statement which appeared in the Adair County News, the Courier-Journal says:

If every county in Kentucky had a health officer as vigilant and active we should see some speedy results in reducing the mortality average and the cost of preventable disease. It is to be hoped the Fiscal Court of Adair county appreciates the work of its health officer and will see that he is properly remunerated. It is a lamentable fact that fiscal courts in general are not very generous in making provision for this important work, and the people largely are indifferent to it. The public money cannot be expended for any better purpose than for the conservation of the public health.

At the Home of Their Pastor.

Tomorrow afternoon (Thursday) Mr. J. Z. Conover, of this place, and Miss Grace Dudley, of Glenville, will be married at the residence of Eld. Z. T. Williams. The couple will reside at the home of the intended groom's father, Mr. J. K. P. Conover, this city. The intended groom is a very excellent young man, who has many friends throughout the county, all of whom will be glad to learn of his very wise decision.

The bride to be is a very attractive young lady and quite popular in the community in which she was born and reared. She is a daughter of Mr. Jack Dudley. Her mother has been dead a number of years. The people of Columbia will give her a most cordial greeting.

Corn Contest.

The Corn contest for boys between the ages of ten and sixteen, is a go in Adair county, provided fifty boys can be found, who will join. Already the business people of Columbia, aided by a few good farmers, have secured sufficient money to offer from ten to fifteen good prizes. In next week's issue the entire program will be published. If you want your boy to learn new methods of farming and get better results this is his opportunity. The corn and directions will be furnished by the State to fifty or seventy five boys. Send in your name at once if you want to enter the contest.

Death of a Good Woman.

Mrs. Jennie McClister, who was the wife of Herschel McClister, died at her late home in the Fairplay country, last Friday afternoon. She was between thirty and thirty-three years old and was a consistent member of the Methodist Church. She was a daughter of the late Squire Crawford Loy, and was highly respected in the neighborhood.

Marriage Licences.

Mr. Walker Bryant, County Court Clerk, issued the following marriage licenses for the month of January:

Henry Grider and Lizzie C. Wilson
John C. Absher and Bertie B. Hutcherson.
O. C. Pelley and Mary Evans.
N. H. Moss and Bertha Conover.
Wm. Keltner and Cleo Sullivan.
Jas. Burton and Zora Burress.
Geo. Cundiff and Jennie Wesley.
Joseph Jesse Lizzie McCawley.

Mr. Elzy Feese, a former resident of Columbia and a member of the Columbia Brass Band, is now living in Louisville. Last week he notified his brother-in-law, Mr. W. L. Wilson, who lives at Cane Valley, but was expected to visit Louisville, to bring with him a tubor horn, the one he blowed while here. The horn was at the home of Mr. H. C. Feese, father-in-law of Mr. Wilson. Before starting to the city Mr. Wilson was given the instrument and he left Columbia with it, believing that he had a perfect right to deliver it to Elzy Feese at Louisville. The horn is the property of the band, and under the contract the instruments must be kept together. When Mr. Wilson reached Lebanon he was arrested by the town Marshal and carried before the City Judge, charged with making way with property not his own. He was perfectly innocent of knowingly doing anything wrong. The party who caused his arrest was called at this place and he notified the officer that the man was not wanted, but the Band here wanted the horn. The arrest was humiliating to Mr. Wilson and he returned to Cane Valley and reported to his father, Mr. R. B. Wilson, who was in Columbia Saturday consulting attorneys with a view of suing the Town Marshal of Lebanon.

We clip the following notice from the Van Alstyne, Texas Leader. The subject of the article is a brother of Dr. Cartwright, of this place, and was born and reared at Glenville, Adair county: "Dr. T. S. Cartwright has been appointed a member of the State Dental Board by Gov. Coquitt and will accept the position. Dr. Cartwright was not an applicant for any position, and news of his appointment came as a complete surprise to him. While Gov. Coquitt has shown excellent judgment in all of his appointments the Leader feels that in none has he made better selection than in naming Dr. Cartwright as a member of the board. Not only from the standpoint of effi-ency but from the standpoint of representative citizenship Dr. Cartwright will measure up to the highest standard and prove a credit to himself and to the members of the board."

Mr. J. D. Walker, of Gradyville, who owns the business house which the store rooms are occupied by Hugh Richardson and Charlie Hutchison and the upper story by J. W. Coy, will never have a better and cheaper opportunity than will be presented this year to erect a brick business house. Mr. R. F. Paull will remove the building which is occupied by the Paull Drug Co., and put up a brick. Mr. Walker's property is between W. L. Walker and the Paull Drug Co., and if Mr. J. D. Walker will put up a brick building he would only have the front and back walls to erect, as he would join the W. L. Walker and the building to be built by Mr. R. F. Paull.

The Pastors of Columbia recently reorganized their Association and so changed the constitution as to include the Pastors and Ministers of the County. There will be the first meeting after organization Monday, the 13th, at 10 a. m. All Pastors and accredited Ministers of the County are respectfully requested to be present. The meeting will be held in the lecture room of the Methodist Church. Come and help us make it a profitable meeting. D. H. Howerton, Secretary.

Mr. J. T. Goodman, Jr., who was here from Rowena last week, stated that there was a fine tide in Cumberland river and thousands of staves and boat load after boat load of lumber were being shipped out. Also many barges of logs. He also stated that thieves got into Mr. John McFarland's logs a few nights ago and stole thirty fine poplars, valued at $300. An effort will be made to catch the thieves.

Inasmuch as the Roberts Bros. have postponed their meeting, and since Bro. L. B. Arvin, the Evangelist employed by our District Board is now available, we shall begin our meeting at the Baptist Church as announced, on next Sunday night, February 12th. A very cordial invitation is extended to everybody to attend these services. Will you pray for the presence and the power of the Holy Spirit?

D. H. Howerton, Pastor.

All Woodmen are requested to be present at the Woodmen Hall, Thursday evening, at 7:30 p. m. Degree work S. F. White, Consul. J. C. Strange, Clerk.

A Splendid Opportunity.

The subscription price of the Daily Courier-Journal, the greatest newspaper in the South, is $6 per year or $4 for eight months. We can send you the Courier-Journal for eight months and the News for one year both for $2.50. This is $1.50 less than you would have to pay for the Courier-Journal alone. If you only want the C. J. for four months with the News for one year you can get them both for $1.75. This offer is for a very limited time, and should be accepted at once. If you are already a subscriber to the News renew at once. If you are not a subscriber now is the time to subscribe and get the great Courier-Journal with it.

This proposition is only extended to parties living outside of the corporate limits of Columbia. The C. J. does this in order to protect the local agent.

Some weeks ago we made the statement in The News that several candidates for the Republican nomination for Representative would soon be actively at work. Since then another gentleman is spoken of as a suitable man, and as we understand has about made up his mind to enter the race. This gentleman is Squire C. C. Rowe, of Sparksville. So far as we have heard he is the only one in the Southern or Western part of the county, who thinks of making the race.

Gold Chief, the celebrated Fancy Saddle and Harness Stallion, whose pedigree is unexcelled, as he is of Goldust & Morgan blood. He is known as the Baker horse, is now owned by Garnett Breeding. He was on exhibition here Monday and was greatly admired. He will make the season 1911 at A. K. Rupe's barn at Breeding, Ky. Also Mr. Rupe will have his noted Jack at same place.

Mr. G. B. Burton, merchant at Gen. try's Mill, was in town Friday. Arrangements were made with him by which a good correspondent would furnish the happenings of that section for The News. If others in sections not represented in the columns of The News would assist in securing good correspondents it would be much better for this section of the State.

We own the printing plant formerly owned by the Columbia Spectator which we desire to sell. It is a good outfit, new job press and cylinder paper press and an abundance of type, all in fairly good condition, stands, racks, etc. Will give some man a bargain. Address The Adair County News.

The Law Department of the Kentucky University, Lexington, will get out a law Journal its first appearance to be in March. Out of 150 law students nine were selected to get out the Journal, Mr. Jas. A. Wilmore, of Gradyville, being one of the number. This is a compliment to young Wilmore and he certainly appreciated it.

At the Presbyterian Manse in Greensburg, Ky., February 1st, 1911, in the presence of a few friends. Mr. S. F. Patrum and Miss Lena B. Salmon were married by Rev. W. H. C. Sandidge. They were accompanied by Mr. J. A. Salmon and Miss Celeste Shirley.

I have a good Jack for sale, a fine breeder. Been shown five times and awarded five premiums. Will have him in Columbia at the March County Court.

J. D. Sharp, Amandaville, Ky.

Mr. L. W. Bennett and Elmore Strange purchased Mr. L. V. Hall's tinners tools and will continue the shop at the same stand. Mr. Strange is an experienced tinner and guarantees satisfaction.

Monday week Circuit Court will open at Jamestown. The docket is about as usual, rather light. A representative of this paper will be in attendance the first part of the week and he desires to see all friends of this paper.

Mr. J. B. Barbee sold a pair of large black work horses to Mr. Walker Brant, last Wednesday, for $500. This, perhaps, is the highest price ever paid in Adair county for two work horses. They are good ones.

Mrs. Mary Dunbar, who is the wife of Mr. Jas. Dunbar, a merchant of Russell county, was adjudged insane last week and she was sent to the asylum. She is a fine lady and her friends hope that her mind will be restored.
